

Kingdom Finances Syllabus

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This is a course designed to help the student understand and apply biblical principles for financial success. First, a historical understanding of capitalism will be developed. Then, biblical principles to create and manage wealth will be discussed. Time will be spent eliminating ways of thinking which result in poverty. Godly thought processes will be encouraged to produce prosperity. Finally, stewardship and generosity will be discussed to offer kingdom purposes for prosperity.

I. Rational: Very little can be done without finances, but if we learn how to manage and steward them, great things can be accomplished. This course aims to equip the student for success in the related areas.

II. Prerequisite: None

III. Program Objectives:

- A. Cognitive: The student will develop an understanding of biblical financial principles.
- B. Performance
 - 1. The student will be helped in being the head, not the tail.
 - 2. The student will develop confidence to be financially successful.

IV. Preassessment: None

V. Instructional/Learning Activities:

- A. The student will read the textbook.
- B. The student will watch and listen to the 10 lectures.
- C. The student will take and pass a 10-question quiz after each lecture.
- D. The student will take and pass the 50-question final exam.

VI. Corrective Learning Opportunities: After each quiz the student will receive a grade and then if performance is poor, listen to the lecture again and retake the quiz.

VII. Learning Resources, Materials, Tools, etc.

Bible

Compassionate Capitalism, a Judeo-Christian Value by Harold R. Eberle