

Institute for Hope & Life Church Government, Based on the Five-Fold Ministry Syllabus

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

An in-depth study on how the local church should be governed, incorporating the ministry gifts of apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers. Develop an understanding of God's anointings and gifts. See how unity can be maintained in the Body of Christ. Develop a picture of where God is taking His Church in the future.

I. Rational: Every church lives or dies, thrives or barely survives, based on its church government. In this course, we learn how the government should be set up and then function in unity and power.

II. Prerequisite: None

III: Program Objectives:

A. Cognitive: The student will develop an understanding of the five-fold ministry and how they should function together.

B. Performance

1. The student will be helped in determining his/her gifts and calling, and hence, his/her own place in the body of Christ.
2. The student will be able to help set up church government and help the local church function more effectively.

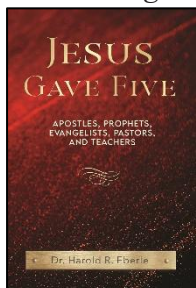

IV. Preassessment: None

V. Instructional/Learning Activities:

- A. The student will read the textbook.
- B. The student will watch and listen to the 10 lectures.
- C. The student will take and pass a 10-question quiz after each lecture.
- D. The student will take and pass the 50-question final exam.

VI. Corrective Learning Opportunities: After each quiz, the student will receive a grade. Then, if performance is poor, listen to the lecture again and retake the quiz.

VII. Learning Resources, Materials, Tools, etc.

Bible

Jesus Gave Five: Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, Pastors, and Teachers,

by Harold R. Eberle

(Previously titled The Complete Wineskin)