

Institute for Hope & Life

Supernatural Living

Syllabus

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

A study of how the spiritual and natural dimensions interact and influence each other. An investigation of the Christian's role in releasing the supernatural into the natural realm. Topics will be discussed, such as what exists in the spiritual realm, how people access that realm, discerning things in the spirit, activities of witches, psychics, and New Agers, spiritual impartations, out-of-body experiences, interpretation of dreams, angelic and demonic visitations, and understanding other supernatural phenomena from a biblical perspective.

I. Rational: The Bible is filled with supernatural reports. Biblical Christianity should be filled with supernatural experiences. Christians should understand this and confidently move in this dimension.

II. Prerequisite: None

III. Program Objectives:

A. Cognitive

1. The student will gain an understanding of spiritual phenomena.
2. The student will grasp the biblical foundation for experiencing supernatural phenomena today.

B. Performance

1. The student will be able to teach what he/she has learned.
2. The student will develop discernment concerning what is good and what is evil in spiritual phenomena.
3. The student will develop confidence in operating in the spiritual dimension.

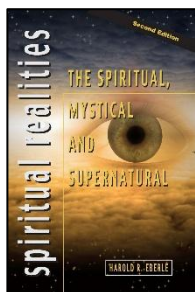

IV. Preassessment: None

V. Instructional/Learning Activities:

- A. The student will read the textbook.
- B. The student will watch and listen to the 10 lectures.
- C. The student will take and pass a 10-question quiz after each lecture.
- D. The student will take and pass the 50-question final exam.

VI. Corrective Learning Opportunities: After each quiz, the student will receive a grade. Then, if performance is poor, listen to the lecture again and retake the quiz.

VII. Learning Resources, Materials, Tools, etc.

1. Bible
2. Textbook: The Spiritual, Mystical, and Supernatural, by Harold R. Eberle